Rotary cutters and other knife related items that we sell are for their appropriate and safe use. Indeed we have experienced situations where the right knife or tool has prevented serious injury or worse. However, knives can be dangerous if improperly handled. It is also important to know and comply with the law regarding the carrying and use of knives (Criminal Justice Act 1988 & Violent Crime Reduction Act 2006 in England and Wales).

Basic laws on knives

It is illegal to:

- Sell a knife of any kind to anyone under 18 years old in the UK, (with the exception that 16 to 18 year olds in Scotland can buy cutlery and kitchen knives)
- Carry a knife in public without good reason - unless it's a knife with a folding blade 3 inches long (7.62 cm) or less, eg a Swiss Army knife
- Carry, buy or sell any type of banned knife.
- Use any knife in a threatening way (even a legal knife, such as a Swiss Army knife).
- Lock knives (knives with blades that can be locked when unfolded) are not folding knives, and are illegal to carry in public without good reason.
- Children are permitted to use knives appropriately (such as a safety knife when sailing) under adult supervision.
